Brentwood Bank Welcomes Heather Reynolds!

Brentwood Bank is thrilled to announce that Heather Reynolds has joined the Bank as the Manager of the office in Brentwood, located at 3635 Brownsville Road.

A ten year veteran of the banking industry, Heather brings exceptional knowledge and an unparalleled commitment to customer service to our team. "Brentwood Bank has been part of this community for 92 years, and I am ecstatic to join an organization that matches my belief that meeting the customers' needs should be our first and only goal" said Reynolds

"We are delighted with the exceptional banking experience Heather brings to Brentwood Bank. We are equally excited to add someone with deep roots in the community and who adds an electric and contagious passion to the Bank and the communities we serve" said Tom Young, Brentwood Bank Senior Vice President. "In addition to working and living in the community, Heather is deeply committed to increasing our involvement with the BBW. Customer service and community involvement are the foundation of everything Heather brings to Brentwood Bank. We couldn't be more excited to have her join our team."

About Brentwood Bank

Brentwood Bank's commitment to the South Hills is deep and unwavering. Clayton Kinlan, Relationship Banker for Brentwood Bank, explains: "We are a community bank. Our branches are in the South Hills, our team members live in the South Hills, and all decision making is done in the South Hills. Our customers like knowing the people they bank with live in the same communities and deal with the same issues they do." Brentwood Bank offers the full suite of products - Free, Interest Earning, and Commercial business checking with no analysis fees, Sweep accounts, Remote Capture, Cash Management, and interest bearing product that provides full FDIC protection even when your balance exceeds $250,000. The difference from the faceless mega-banks is that our customers know who they're dealing with and can call and talk with their banker face-to-face."
