

Passport to Pittsburgh Presents

A Roman Holiday Tour!!

Sunday, February 25, 2018

4:30-10pm

Price per Person: $120 pp

Grab your togas and join us for a fun Roman Holiday!!

Your tour includes roundtrip luxury shuttle transportation, Italian Feast 3 course dinner, Tickets to the Pittsburgh Public Theater, all taxes and gratuities.

No hassles, no parking, and no worries....

4:30 pm – Pick up at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church 418 Maxwell Drive, Pgh 15236

5:00 pm- 3 course Italian Feast at Buca de Beppo Restaurant in Station Square before the show. Dinner includes mixed greens salad with house made Italian bread, Pasta Marinara and Fettucine Alfredo, chicken Parmigiano and Buca Brownie Delight Dessert, unlimited soft drinks, coffee and tea. Cash Bar available upon request. www.bucadibeppo.com

7:00 pm - Pittsburgh Public Theaters performance of the timeless comedy Broadway Musical “A Funny Thing Happened on the Way to the Forum”. This hilarious revival of the 1962 Tony Award Winner for Best Musical features music and lyrics by Steven Sondheim. Set in ancient Rome and overflowing with delicious songs and gorgeous dancing girls, this wonderful mix of Broadway and Burlesque is guaranteed to bring the house down. Fasten you Togas!! www.ppt.org

10:00 pm – Return to Good Shepherd -depending on length of show and traffic.

Questions: Kim Adley

412-298-0409 passport2pgh@gmail.com

Your payment secures your seat!! Only 30 tickets available.

Checks made payable to: Passport to Pittsburgh

Mail to: 1588 Pinehurst Drive, Pittsburgh, PA 15241

